Instructions:

Create an A2 sized panel from white card stock.

Stamp a girl holding a box image in black ink on the panel. Before stamping, cover flying butterflies image using sticky note.

Color the girl images using Zig brush markers.

Draw a rainbow-shape guideline from the box image to the upper left edge of the panel using a pencil.

Mask the areas using sticky notes except the rainbow shape area.

Color the open area using Distress ink (Mustard Seed), Neon orange ink, and Neon Pink ink using an ink-blending tool, blend in a gradient of color.

Stamp dog images with black ink on the other cardstock and color them.

Cut them using coordinating die (51-238 dog days).

Adhere two dogs on the panel as you can see from the image above.

Stamped flying butterflies in black ink.

Stamp the sentiment in black ink.
